INTRODUCTION

This catalog is concerned principally with Emory College, Roberto C. Goizueta Business School, and Oxford College. Continuing and visiting transient students should read the general information section of this catalog to familiarize themselves with summer school procedures.

The university reserves the right to revise information, course offerings, requirements, regulations, or financial charges at any time. Whenever changes occur, an effort will be made to notify persons who may be affected.

Students visiting during the summer are subject to the same rules, regulations, practices, and policies of Emory University that apply to degree candidates. The summer session offers all facilities of instruction, housing, and services available in the August–May academic year but has fewer scheduled extracurricular activities.

The air-conditioned George W. Woodruff Physical Education Center, designed by John Portman, provides outstanding facilities for summer sports programs. Other activities include campus movies, lectures by visiting speakers, and a variety of student-initiated projects. Professional sports and public recreational opportunities are available in Atlanta all summer.

ABOUT EMORY UNIVERSITY

From its founding in 1836, Emory has grown into a national teaching, research, and service institution with an enrollment exceeding ten thousand. A coeducational, privately administered university affiliated with the United Methodist Church, Emory awards more than two thousand degrees annually. The university includes Emory College of Arts and Sciences and Oxford College; the Laney Graduate School; and the schools of business, law, medicine, nursing, public health, and theology. Among the centers for specialized research and study at Emory are the Carter Center of Emory University, the Center for Ethics, the Center for Mind, Brain, and Culture, the Bill and Carol Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry, and the Michael C. Carlos Museum. Independent affiliates include the Georgia Humanities Council. Emory College offers a range of study abroad opportunities through exchange agreements, Emory study abroad programs, and programs run by other institutions. In addition to course offerings on the Emory campus and online, the Study Abroad Office advises students about studying abroad and works with college faculty to develop and administer study abroad programs designed specifically for Emory undergraduates.

Emory’s Robert W. Woodruff Health Sciences Center comprises the schools of Medicine, Public Health, and Nursing; Emory Healthcare; Winship Cancer Institute; and Yerkes National Primate Research Center. Independent affiliates include Grady Memorial Hospital, Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta, and the Atlanta Veterans Affairs Medical Center.

The Emory campus consists of 631 acres six miles northeast of downtown Atlanta. The Georgia capital is the Southeast’s center for business, cultural, religious, legal, medical, governmental, and educational activities.

Oxford College, a two-year liberal arts division of Emory University, is located in Oxford, Georgia, 38 miles east of Atlanta. The Oxford College summer program is held on Emory’s Atlanta campus.

The Atlanta community offers a variety of attractions for Emory students, including the High Museum of Art, the Alliance Theater and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra as well as many cultural and athletic events.
APPLICATION

CONTINUING EMORY STUDENTS: Emory College students who are currently enrolled and degree seeking may preregister online through OPUS beginning February 23, 2021. CREDIT AND LOAD

The unit of credit is a semester hour. Enrollment should not exceed 10 semester hours during any six-week session unless the student is enrolled in an internship program or receives permission for an overload from the appropriate class dean. Students must enroll in at least six semester hours to be considered for financial aid during the summer. International transient students on an F-1 visa must enroll for a minimum of six semester hours in one six-week session or 12 semester hours if attending both summer sessions.
FINANCIAL INFORMATION

TUITION AND FEES: The tuition charge in Emory College and Goizueta Business School is $1,658 per credit hour (on campus) and $1,327 per credit hour for courses taken online. An athletic fee of $59 and a $91 health and wellness fee is assessed for all students enrolled in courses on the Emory campus. Students enrolled in an online course are assessed a $75 technology fee.

Students who register for the summer session by early April will receive an online billing statement. Students will receive email notification stating their billing statement is available on OPUS for viewing, printing, and payment. Email will be the only notification process for billing. Billing statements are not mailed. If you enroll after summer billing has occurred, viewing OPUS will be your only source for billing information. Your charges will be calculated when you register and you may view the amount you owe by reviewing your OPUS account. (The navigation is View Your Account–Summary and then Item Details for Summer 2021.)

You may make an online payment through OPUS using the Make a Payment menu option on the Student Financial Services main menu on OPUS. You may also mail your payment to Student Financial Services, 200 Dowman Drive, 101 B. Jones Center, Atlanta, GA 30322. Payment must be received by the specified due date to avoid additional late fees. Please include your student ID number on the check. Instructions for wiring money directly to your student account are available on the Student Financial Services main menu on OPUS.

We strongly encourage students to use the online payment function on OPUS to make registration payments. To facilitate the payment process, you may use a new OPUS feature called OPUS Guest Access. With guest access, you are able to authorize access to up to five guests on the OPUS pages you select. Some of the finance items you may authorize guest access to are: View Monthly and Registration, Make On-Line Payment, Make Emory Card Deposit, and View Account Detail. Payment is due in full on or before registration day for all students enrolled in Emory College.

Please refer to Student Financial Services for deadlines, policy information, and consequences for non-payment and payment plan information.

FINANCIAL AID: Awarding for Emory students will begin in mid-March. No separate summer application is necessary for financial aid. Students who preregister for at least six hours will be automatically notified of their eligibility for assistance for the summer terms. Students should register for both sessions of summer school so their aid awards will be based on the total number of hours of summer enrollment. A notice that your aid award is ready to view in OPUS will be emailed to your official email address designated in OPUS. Be sure to check instructions and messages that may require your action when you view the award. Students who have graduated from Oxford College and are eligible to continue to Emory College will be considered Emory College students. Oxford College students must consult with the Oxford Office of Financial Aid.

TRANSIENT STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP: Transient non-degree seeking students admitted to Emory College for summer 2021 may apply for the Emory College Summer Scholarship. Once admitted as an undergraduate transient student, complete the online scholarship application and submit a copy of your 2020–2021 financial aid award letter. Scholarship materials may be submitted online, or emailed to oisp@emory.edu. The application deadline is May 17, 2021.
CANCELLATION

Registration/course enrollment may be canceled through May 17 for Maymester courses, May 19 for Session 1 courses, and June 30 for Session 2 courses. Students may drop a course or courses during the add/drop/swap period and receive a full refund. Visiting transient students must notify the Summer School Office (summer-programs.emory.edu) if they no longer plan to attend summer school, or if they need help with the drop/add process.

POLICIES AND CAMPUS SERVICES

THE HONOR SYSTEM AND THE CONDUCT CODE

For more than half a century, academic integrity has been maintained at Emory through the student-initiated and student-regulated Honor Code. The Honor Code may be viewed at http://catalog.college.emory.edu/academic/policies-regulations/honor-code.html. Please familiarize yourself with the Honor Code.

Every student who applies and is accepted by Emory College agrees, as a condition of attendance, to abide by the provisions of the Honor Code as long as he or she remains a student at Emory. By his or her continued attendance at Emory, a student reaffirms his or her pledge to adhere to the provisions of the Honor Code. Students who violate the Honor Code are subject to a letter grade of “F” in the course in question, suspension, dismissal, or a combination of these sanctions and/or other sanctions as appropriate.

Students are expected to conform to specific conduct requirements as described in the Emory Undergraduate Code of Conduct and to conduct themselves in accordance with the ideals for which Emory stands. The Conduct Code may be viewed online. Students who violate the Conduct Code are subject to warning, reprimand, probation, suspension, or dismissal.

THE EMORY CARD

The Emory Card is the official ID card of the university. The Emory Card is also a debit and access identification card. The Emory Card Office is managed by Student Financial Services, located in the B Jones Center on the first floor. Please refer to their website for office hours. Transient students may upload a picture through the Emory Card website. This will allow students to receive their ID quickly. The Emory Card can hold your meal plan or be used for dining and retail purchases around campus. Some residence halls require an Emory Card to enter.

The Emory Card also grants you access to common university areas such as the Woodruff Library and the Woodruff P E Center. Additional information is available at www.onecard.emory.edu/emorycard.

SUMMER HOUSING

Limited on-campus housing is available to undergraduate students enrolled in classes for the summer. Students must be enrolled in either the three-week Maymester course or the six-week summer sessions. Students can be housed only for sessions in which they are enrolled in classes. For more information, please see University Housing. All housing information and application materials are available online. You must be enrolled in summer classes in order to access the online portal. The Office of Residence Life and Housing welcomes your questions at 404.727.7631 or via email at housing@emory.edu.

MEALS

Emory dining summer hours of operation are posted online at www.emory.edu/dining. For specific requests or questions, please email dining@emory.edu or call 404.727.8960. Catering Services at Emory also are available by emailing catering@emory.edu or by calling 404.712.8948.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICES

Officially registered and enrolled students with Emory ID cards validated for the summer term and are on campus are eligible for outpatient health care at Emory University Student Health Services (EUSHS). Emory students not enrolled for summer but continuing in the fall (as well as international spouses/domestic partners and dependents age 18 and older insured by the Emory Student Health Insurance Program) may also be seen on a fee-for-service basis. EUSHS is located at 1525 Clifton Road. Summer clinic hours are 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Students should call 404.727.7551 (press option 1) to schedule an appointment or request an appointment via our online communication system. 2. Students may petition for credit toward a degree for work taken in special standing only after having been admitted formally to a degree program. There is no guarantee that credit will be awarded for courses taken in special standing.

3. A student enrolled in summer term who wishes to enter a degree program must file an application as a degree candidate; acceptance as a summer term student does not obligate the school to accept the student as a degree candidate or in any subsequent time in special standing.

4. Students who wish to take academic work at Emory in addition to summer term must file an application for admission according to appropriate application deadlines of the school. This form is for summer term and/or special standing only. Admission will not be granted for subsequent terms without the appropriate application and submission of required supporting documents.

I have read and fully understand the restrictions and guidelines of this application for admission as a special or transient student, and I agree to furnish correct and complete information. I further agree that if I am accepted, I will abide by all the rules, regulations, practices, and policies of Emory University, including the Honor Code of Emory College and the Emory University Undergraduate Code of Conduct (see page 8 of this document) as they may be at the time of admission or as they may be changed during my continuance as a student.
